At HörArt there are: zithering typewriter keys of the nightingale, singing walking sticks, bulging cheeks, flexible joints, limber tongues, seed capsules, . . . A journey to distant peoples, their instruments, their music, their cultures, as they are. Askold zur Eck takes guests on a trip of indescribable emotions, which lie slumbering in the world of music until they are awakened. Well over 6,000 instruments. Hundreds which he could demonstrate, but he won't - just a sampling.

The baroque fish reservoir, the art collection with the Tassilo-Liutpirc chalice, the light-filled Emperor's Hall, the library as well as the painting gallery are among the highlights of the abbey and can be discovered during an abbey tour. A world full of wonder is presented by the newly-designed "Wunderkammer" (chamber of marvels). Over the ages, the abbots and monks lovingly collected their curiosities and rarities here.
